

Staying in the Game I Still Want to Play

Hi

My latest blog post, Staying in the Game I Still Want to Play is now live and you can read it here!

Here's a quick snapshot of what it dives into:

- How we sometimes stop playing in life and business and start just performing instead.

- Why saying “I still want to play” matters for innovation, leadership, and joy.
- Ways to reclaim that playful energy without losing focus or professionalism.

If you're feeling like you've lost the spark, or you're wondering whether you're just working the game instead of really playing it then this one's for you.

I hope it gives you a little permission to lean in, stay curious, and keep showing up.

Much Love

Peter
